

IAN WESTON

My Story

My name is Ian Weston and I am a film creator based in Camden Delaware. I have been creating films and working with cameras since I was 13 years old. I have a love and a passion for creating content. I'm always looking for the next opportunity to help others through my work, and I'm always looking for exciting new opportunities that force me to think outside the box. If you'd like to learn more about my work, interests, or past projects, get in touch today.
